THE HOUSE BOXING COMPETITION

O.Q. 1941.

The finals of the Inter-House Boxing Competition took place at Hillside Gymnasium on Wednesday, December 3rd. The standard of boxing on the whole was quite good. Hodgsonites were the winners with 18 points, and Daviesites were the runners-up with 10 points. The cup was presented by I. W. Hockley (Captain of Boxing, St. Thomas's Hospital) to M. F. T. Bridger, the Captain of the winning House, Hodgsonites, who won the cup for the first time in their history.

The Judges were:—I. W. Hockley (St. Thomas's Captain), W. Stannard (Trainer, St. Thomas's Hospital), Sergeant Harris (A Canadian Regiment).

UNDER XVI

Under 6st.—R. M. G. Simpson (H) w.o. C. G. Pearson (H).

Under 6st.7lb.—R. R. Unger (D) beat W. S. C. Chevis (H).

Both attacked hard from the start, but Unger, who kept his guard up, was able to prevent many of the blows landing on his face. Chevis, on the other hand, was apt to let his right drop and leave an open target to his opponent. However, this was a very close fight, and both should do well in future years.

Under 7st.—M. D. Jory (D) beat O. S. Pound (D).

In the first round Pound began by attacking hard, but in spite of his superiority in height and his longer reach, he was unable to do much damage to Jory, who landed many hard blows to the head with well-timed and accurate punches.

Under 7st.7lb.—A. F. Waley (P) w.o. C. E. MacWilliam (R).

Under 8st.—G. M. Dowell mi. (H) t.k.o. J. R. Ballantyne (D) in the first round.

Dowell attacked from the start with hard punches with both hands to the face and body. The fight was stopped half-way through the first round. Dowell has a very good style, and he should do well in the School boxing next quarter.

Under 8st.7lb.—W. H. Masefield (G) beat F. A. Hill (H).

This was a very plucky fight. Masefield had the advantage of being much taller and also had a longer reach than his opponent. However, Hill was able to get in some good punches by rushing in under his guard. But Masfield boxed coolly and just managed to win.

Under 10st.7lb.—I. G. Lovesy (G) beat J. H. S. Law (W).

Lovesy was too strong for his opponent, and won easily.

OVER XVI

Under 9st.—G. N. Powell (H) w.o. F. M. Johnson (R).

Johnson, who had dislocated his thumb in the Semi-Final, was unfortunately unable to fight.

Under 9st.7lb.—B. D. Wilson (D) beat J. A. B. Tabor (H).

This was also a very plucky fight. Wilson has a very powerful straight left, which he used with great effect on the unguarded face of his opponent. Tabor, however, stood up to his blows pluckily, but failed to make use of his opportunities and hit back. Wilson easily won. He should do well next quarter in the School Boxing.

Under 10st.7lb.—A. C. D. Davidson (G) beat J. H. C. Lowe (G).

Davidson, being a much more experienced boxer, attacked from the start with hard punches to the face, which caused Lowe's nose to bleed. The last two rounds were very similar, and the fight ended with Davidson easily the winner. Lowe must use his guard more.

Under 11st.—R. F. Coales (S) beat C. I. Bostock (H).

Coales had the advantage of height and a very long reach and was able to keep Bostock at a distance. However, Bostock managed to get into his guard now and again by making quick rushes, but he failed to do much damage. In the third round Bostock, who was not able to stand up to the persistent blows to the face, was knocked down twice, and Coales won fairly easily.

Under 11st.7lb.—A. P. P. Ricketts (V) beat R. Milton (B).

This was by far the most exciting fight of the afternoon. Ricketts, who has had much more experience than Milton, attacked with hard blows to the face and body. In the second round Ricketts forced Milton into a corner and punched his unguarded face again and again. At last Milton fought back fiercely, and might well have knocked his opponent out if he had only been in better training. Milton must use his guard more and move about on his feet more quickly.

After the Finals A. P. P. Ricketts (V) and G. N. Powell (H) received their Colours.

The Points were as follows:—

1st.	Hodgsonites	...	18	points.
2nd.	Daviesites	...	10	"
3rd.	Gownboys	...	8	"
4th.	Saunderites	...	4	"
	Verites	...
6th.	Robinites	...	3	"
7th.	Bodeites	...	2	"
	Pageites	...
9th.	Girdlestoneites	...	0	"
	Weekites	...

At the end of the Quarter A. C. D. Davidson (G) and F. M. Johnson (R) were awarded their Boxing Colours.

CHARTERHOUSE v BLACKHEATH HARRIERS

November 22nd, 1941.

Lost.

1. Hammill (B.H.), 32 mins. 52 2/5 secs.
2. French (B.H.).
3. Bond (B.H.).
4. Durrant (Ch.), 33 mins. 2 secs.

Ch.—4, 5, 6, 9, 11, 12, 13, 21 = 81.

The Charterhouse team was not running well to-day and the Blackheath Harriers fully deserved their victory.

Hammill and French both started off with a fast pace and managed to keep a good lead till the finish, although Durrant made a big effort to catch up and pass them.

Saager and Tom ran together again but the former did not manage to pull off one of his usual fast finishes.

CHARTERHOUSE v SOUTH LONDON HARRIERS

Smith }
13. Bridger (Ch.), 35 mins. 10 secs.
14. Mortimer (S.L.H.), 37 mins. 5 secs.

Score—S.L.H.—2, 3, 4, 5, 7 = 21.

Ch.—1, 6, 9, 8, 10 = 34.

This was probably the best race of the season, and although South London Harriers won it was a close race, as can be seen from the times of arrival.

Tom started off with the usual fast pace, closely followed by Stainsbury, the English International; these two juggled for the lead till the finish and it was only because Stainsbury missed the entrance to Princes Avenue that Tom managed to pull ahead and arrive in first.

Trollope ran well throughout the whole of the race and it was bad luck that he was beaten by a few inches on the finishing line by Naylor.

Lumsden, Wyndham, Durrant and Smith packed well all along and managed to keep well ahead of Mortimer, the Southern Junior Champion, who although just having recovered from an illness was running steadily and well.
