Charterhouse—1, 2, 3, 6, 7=19.

Tyrian Club—4, 5, 8, 9, 10=36.

For this match Charterhouse had a full team and secured a comfortable victory. The course was a little muddy in places, but on the whole conditions were good for the time of year.

The Tyrian pack started fast but were unable to keep it up; Robertson, Whettem and Dunstan-Croney took the lead soon after the Harrow Inn and were home nearly a minute before any Tyrian. Grant, running very well, caught up several places and did well to finish sixth.

After this match M. R. Dunstan-Croney received Colours.

The course was about 3½ miles in length and was almost entirely flat.

Charterhouse—1, 2, 6, 7, 10=26.

Sandhurst—3, 4, 5, 8, 9=29.

This was another very close match with Sandhurst, Charterhouse just winning by 3 points.

The Sandhurst team, used to 3½ miles, found the course a little long, and after a fast start dropped back. Whettem and Robertson then took the lead and won quite comfortably. The third place was keenly contested and there was a very close finish between Reid, Kent, Andrews and Melford. Melford and Grant were both running extremely well.

After this match J. C. Whettem received Colours.

HOUSE BOXING COMPETITION, O.Q., 1944.

Owing to the unprecedented number of entrants, 154 in all, some of the finals had to be fought on the day before; but on both days the standard was higher than has been seen for many years, and much of the boxing, though it lacked experience, yet showed plenty of vitality.

Lieut. Lambert was unable to come over from Aldershot owing to a sudden attack of 'flu,' so Col. H. P. Jameson very kindly presided with the help of Cook and S/I. Ward. In his closing summary Col. Jameson thanked the boxers for the best exhibition Charterhouse has given for some time, before presenting the Cup to the captain of the winning house, Hodgsonites, and the Under XVI Cup to J. A. Strang, captain of Weekites.

UNDER 16

UNDER 5ST. 7LBS.

E. V. Gerson (W) beat A. F. H. Little (H), W.O.

UNDER 6ST.

J. D. Bridgewater (W) beat D. L. Franks (D).

Bridgewater was the taller of the two and used his longer reach to ward off his opponent's persistent attacks. A close and lively fight.

UNDER 6ST. 7LBS.

R. T. G. Gabriel (g) beat C. M. Marks (W).

Marks attacked with strong blows from the start, but met with tough resistance. Gabriel showed a stamina and skill which won him a hard fight.

UNDER 7ST.

J. K. Divett (W) beat A. B. Jordan (S).

This was a close fight and strongly contested from the first. Divett was the more forceful of the two and used his superiority to good effect.

UNDER 7ST. 7LBS.

A. J. Birley (G) beat G. P. A. Faulkner (G).

Faulkner had the better style and a longer reach than his opponent, who in his turn was faster and managed to score many times by slipping under the other's guard. Both boxers show promise.

UNDER 8ST.

W. M. Gruby (H) beat T. R. J. Smith (W), T.K.O.

Gruby attacked from the start and soon had his opponent in trouble. Smith bowed before the storm and Gruby used his quick footwork and effective though somewhat wild uppercuts to make sure of a good and exciting fight.

UNDER 8ST. 7LBS.

T. M. A. Uphill-Brown (S) beat V. J. P. D. Marrot (S).

Uphill-Brown warded off the pugnacious and sometimes dangerous attacks of the other with a cool and skilful resistance before switching to the offensive and finishing the fight with a good margin.

UNDER 9ST.

J. B. Donne (W) beat G. M. Thompson (B), T.K.O.

Donne attacked with strong and damaging blows against a plucky but weaker opponent and the issue was not long in doubt. Thompson was down twice before the fight was stopped in the third round.

UNDER 9ST. 7LBS.

D. G. A. Sher (W) beat H. M. Mills (R).

Sher mixed it from the start and charged to the attack heedless of some damaging uppercuts from Mills, who put up a cool and plucky defence throughout. Sher has plenty of strength and staying power but must learn some rudiments of style if he boxes in School matches. Mills, on the other hand, has plenty of boxing ability but lacks stamina.

UNDER 10ST.

N. F. Mavroleon (W) beat I. M. C. Farquharson (D).
Mavroleon, who had three technical knock-outs to his credit in previous rounds, found a stiffer and more determined opposition in Farquharson. However, his smooth, easy style and dangerous two-handed attacks gradually mounted up the points and gained him a hard but sure victory. With good training both should do well.

UNDER 10ST. 7LBS.

D. A. Jenks (H) beat J. R. Anthony (D), W.O.

UNDER 11ST.

J. A. Strang (W) beat P. B. H. May (S).

Strang, through his tougher build and greater experience, beat a taller and by no means negligible opponent who withstood his attacks with a remarkable coolness. Strang must cultivate a more scientific style if he is to make good.

UNDER 12ST.

G. T. Geddes (S) beat V. D. N. Elliott (W).

A lively and spirited fight distinguished only by keenness and lack of skill on both sides.

UNDER 11ST.

G. A. Meyer (R) beat T. P. Fidgeon (S).

Fidgeon was the heavier built, but Meyer's was the better style and gradually gained him the upper hand in a close and interesting bout.

OVER 16

UNDER 8ST.

G. R. W. Turbutt (S) beat M. D. Blake, T.K.O.

Turbutt was obviously the better boxer and did not take long to dispose of a lighter and less experienced opponent.

UNDER 8ST. 7LBS.

R. C. Ilbert (H) beat S. R. Parsons (H), W.O.

UNDER 9ST.

A. L. Albu (R) beat A. R. B. Cox (S).

This was a very close and exciting fight. Cox, who had taken only half a minute to dispose of his previous opponent, made his usual whirlwind attacks and for the moment looked like winning, but Albu fought back magnificently and full honours go to him for a fine display of boxing which in the end subdued the fighter.

UNDER 9ST. 7LBS.

L. H. Robertson (S) beat C. Berger (H).

From start to finish this was an excellent fight. Berger went all out to avenge his defeat of last year and by his comfortable victories in the two preceding rounds seemed likely to do so. But his training was poor in comparison with Robertson's and he was slowly worn down by the fast, persistent and skilful attacks of his opponent. Both are dangerous boxers with a lot of style.

UNDER 10ST.

F. A. Hill (H) beat J. M. Waddell (S).

Hill attacked furiously, though wildly, and did well to beat down his opponent's guard. His blows were seldom straight, however, and contrasted unfavourably with the firmer but fewer punches of Waddell. The margin was narrow but indisputable.

UNDER 10ST. 7LBS.

G. D. Spratt (g) beat A. G. Ray (D).

Spratt throughout showed himself to be the superior boxer and his hard, straight blows shook Ray, who, however, stood his ground and fought back manfully.

UNDER 11ST.

G. M. Gilbert (H) beat N. A. Bonham-Carter ma. (G).

Gilbert was the stronger of the two and pressed home fast and vigorous attacks, giving his opponent no time to recover. Both have some skill and plenty of staying power, but have a lot to learn.

UNDER 11ST. 7LBS.

R. G. K. T. Bridger (H) beat M. R. Nathan ma. (H), W.O.

UNDER 12ST. 7LBS.

M. J. Rimell ma. (W) beat H. Le Bas (S).

Good fighting and good spirit; Rimell had his opponent always in trouble through his fast and powerful attacks, and could have finished the fight sooner. Le Bas stuck it well, but the issue was never in doubt.

UNDER 13ST.

P. C. D. Moy (S) beat G. R. W. Carter (R).

Carter attacked strongly and won the first round, but in the second and third he looked tired and allowed Moy to press home some damaging blows. A good fight, won only by stamina and good condition.

RESULTS:—1. Hodgsonites, 30; 2. Saunderites, 26; 3. Weekites, 21; 4. Robinites, Daviesites, 9; 6. Gownboys, 7; 7. Girdlestoneites, 6; 8. Bodeites, 1.
